Security Notice

Please ignore any form of communication (telephone, email or otherwise) asking you to divulge internet banking confidential details, such as User ID and passwords. Such emails or phone calls are fraudulent in nature. It is important not to click on any links provided in such emails or give away confidential details like your username and password.

Online Security Notice

In accessing this Site, you accept that electronic mail and other transmissions passing over the internet may not be free from interference by outside parties and may, therefore, not remain confidential. Consequently, although we have made every reasonable effort to make our system secure, we cannot guarantee the privacy or confidentiality of any information passing over the internet. Unless otherwise expressly allowed in a particular page of the Site, transmissions to us shall not be considered as instructions, requests to purchase or obtain any product or service, or complaints by customers relating to such products or services.

Online Security Recommendations by AgriBank plc

AgriBank plc is committed to helping you protect yourself against fraud.

The following are the Security Recommendations as suggested by AgriBank plc:

- ✓ Use only computers that are protected by an antivirus or firewall software.
- ✓ Do not reply to emails that claim to be from AgriBank plc or any other company, requesting your account information or personal details. No registered bank is ever likely to approach you this way to ask for personal information.
- ✓ Never send or disclose the AgriBank plc username or password by email or other unsecured communication.
- ✓ When accessing the AgriBank plc website, type in the address www.agribankplc.com yourself in the address bar of your browser. Do not access the website via an e-mail or a link.
- ✓ Be wary of emails including attachments, or offering free software from unknown sources. You could unwillingly end up exposing your computer and the information on it to third parties.
- ✓ Do not store personal information and bank account numbers and passwords on your mobile phone.

Kindly contact us straightaway if you think your AgriBank plc username and password have been exposed to an unwanted source.

Data Protection and Privacy Policy

This policy has been developed because we want you to feel confident about the privacy and security of your personal information. Please read it carefully:

We do not provide any third parties with any information regarding a customer's financial transactions/accounts unless obliged to do so by law, by court order or with your specific consent.

According to law, we may be required from time to time to disclose your information to Governmental bodies, agencies or our Regulators, but we will only do so under proper authority.

We only collect information that we believe to be relevant and required to understand a customer's present or future financial needs, or the needs of our customers in general, to fulfil our anti-money laundering and compliance obligations and in general to conduct our business.

Market research using customer information is only carried out for internal purposes, so that we may understand our customers' needs and business trends in order to develop and/or improve the products and services that we offer.

It is our policy to send direct marketing material related to our financial products or from carefully selected third parties that may provide products or services to us, or our customers, at preferential rates or conditions. Customers have a right to request not to receive direct marketing material by informing us in writing.

All reasonable efforts are made to keep customer information up-to-date. Please help us take prompt and efficient action by informing us of any changes to your personal information either by visiting your branch or writing to us. Please write to us if you want to know exactly what personal information we hold on you. If it transpires that the information held is inaccurate, we will make the necessary amendments and confirm to you that these have been made.

We strive to invest in the latest security technologies available and maintain strict information security policies designed to prevent unauthorised access to your information by anyone, including our staff.

All our staff and all authorised third parties (eg support services) with permitted access to your information are specifically required to comply with AgriBank plc's Information Security Policies.

When using the public portion of the website, you may be required to provide us with your personal information, however this information is only used for the purpose for which it is collected e.g. to send the requested product information, unless you specifically choose otherwise. If you provide us with your email address, we will treat it just as securely as other personal information. We will not send you unsolicited email messages or junk mail.

Similar to other websites, our website utilises a standard technology called 'cookies'. Cookies are pieces of information that some transfers to your computer's hard disc for record keeping, statistical and analysis purposes. They record the number of times people visit certain pages on our website. However, they are not used to access your personal information. They are a tool we use to analyse which web pages people prefer to view, in an aggregated manner. Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you prefer, you can set your browser to refuse cookies. However, given that we may sometimes use cookies, you may not be able to take full advantage of our website if you do so.

Links which we provide to third-party websites are clearly marked and AgriBank plc is not responsible for the content of such websites or their privacy policies.

We may record telephone conversations to offer additional security or resolve complaints.

According to law, all our staff is personally responsible for maintaining customer confidentiality.

Unless otherwise stated in specific terms and conditions of use of any part of our website, we may change the content or services found on our website at any time without notice, and consequently our privacy policy may change at any time in the future.

You agree to revisit this page regularly and your continued access to or use of our website will mean that you agree to any and all changes.

In this policy, "we" and "us" refers to AgriBank plc and its subsidiaries, and "our" shall be construed accordingly.

If you have any questions regarding privacy issues, you may call our offices on telephone (00356) 2092 6000 for more information, or send us an email on info@agribankplc.com
